What is Child Evangelism Fellowship?

A faith-based ministry organized in Memphis in 1941 with the purpose of leading unsaved children to a saving knowledge of Christ, training the Christian child to get to know God better, and guiding them in a desire to honor God. Camp Good News is one of the programs used to accomplish this purpose. Other programs available through CEF of Memphis include Good News Clubs, 5-Day Clubs, Christian Youth in Action, Party Clubs, and Face Painting..

If you would you like to make a tax-deductible contribution to help a child enjoy a week at Camp Good News, scholarship gifts can be made payable to:
