Parent or Guardian Questions:

City to saddle wants our participants to have fun and learn horsemanship and other skills as well as contribute to the children's physical, social, and mental health development. Did City to Saddle enhance your child's self-confidence, self-discipline, patience, compassion or other characteristics? Please explain how, specifically, the program influenced your child.

Did you feel the program was diverse and sensitive to your child's needs?

Did you feel you had sufficient and appropriate information about the program prior to sending your child? If no, please share additional information you would have liked:
Would you encourage others to participate? _____

Would you be interested in having your child continue with horse experiences, such as individual lessons or volunteering in the future?

If so, what would the obstacles be (if any) that would prevent this from happening?

Would you like to visit the farm and learn about the programs, learn to ride a horse and or find out about volunteer opportunities for parents?

May we have your permission to quote you in our presentation materials? _____

If yes, please give signature: _____ date: _____
